WEDNESDAY, AUG. 1, 1906.

HE DID RIGHT.

Governor Warfield, of Maryland, did right in having the law fully executed and without provoking a scene and bloodshed.

Prudent folks avoid difficulties if possible, and inspiration injoins peace "if possible." "In this case it was possible and the Governor is to be commended notwithstanding what the "big brothers" say to it.

The mere fact that the Governor could command the forces of the state and crush any mob that might undertake to take the law in it's own hand does'nt alter the case. He might have been necessary to shoot down some of his fellow citizens and this he prudently, wisely and as we believe, courageously avoided.

An unnecessary clash between soldiers and frenzied citizens, which resulted in bloodshed would, in our opinion, be murder. Stonewall Jackson was'nt afraid of the shock of battle, but if he could have accomplished his purpose without fighting, he would no sooner have resorted to arms than he would have feared in presence of any foe. Toting chips about on one's hat is'nt evidence of a valiant spirit. "A prudent wife is from the Lord," and the same may be said of a prudent Governor. Governor Warfield deserves commendation rather than censure. Better be sensible than go to shooting without a cause.

The late Russell Sage left his millions to his widow. Splendid compliment that. Now let her open wide her purse strings and see to it that she does not also die rich, and in the eyes of Mr. Carnegie, die "disgraced." Millions will not make her happy unless in their use she contributes to the happiness of others.

We met with a Southside Virginia farmer the other day who told us that he cultivated just three acres in tobacco last season and sold this crop for $450, making a clear profit of $400, and yet people continue to say "farming does'nt pay." Some farming does pay and what one farmer does the others ought to do.

The late Mr. Field, of Chicago, was worth quite $200,000,000 and paid taxes on less than $300,000 And yet he is held up as a model for young men to imitate. If he defrauded his constituants as he did his country no wonder he accumulated largely.

Debates on the new constitution are ready for distribution. Most people will dodge them as they do the Congressional Record. Was there a truly great speech delivered during the long drawn out session of the body? If so, name it and we will read it again.

The Corporation Commission has followed the ruling of the Staunton judge and knocked the Churchman act out on the second round. Railroads still rule the roost. Attorney-General Anderson will have the question finally decided by the Court of Appeals.

William Jennings Bryan in a silk hat is not the Bryan of other days, but it must be remembered that while headed that way he was the guest of royalty. He will return naturally to the old slouch when he gets with the "boys" again.

A friend of ours paid an old negro man fifty cents in one silver piece, for some work he had done, and as he gazed at the "precious stuff" he remarked, "I wish it did'nt have dem wings, for den it would'nt fly away so quick."

An insolent negro in New York boasts that he will force his people into circles heretofore and now occupied by the whites exclusively. The "problem" broadens, deepens and, maybe, darkens.

Col. Button will not be kept long in suspense as the Court of Appeals will soon decide upon his title to the office to which the legislature elected him.

We were glad to know that those three Blacksburg boys were bad, and not the trustees and faculty of that great instution; that is if any body had to be bad.

We know nothing of the truth or falsity of the charges against Senator Bailey, but we exceedingly regret that he has'nt lived "above suspicion."

Presidentially speaking Hearst is hearsed.—Times-Dispatch.

And Bryan is bannered.

Toga.

Dear Mr. Editor:—As I have seen nothing from here for some time, I will give you a few items.

The farmers are through thrashing wheat, and the yield was small but the quality good.

Our popular merchant and post master, Mr. J. H. Lewis attended the James River Association and reports having a nice time.

Mrs. Luther Robertson, and Miss Florence Robertson, of Lynchburg, were the guests of Mrs. Thomas S. Day this week.

Mr Percy Spencer, of Roanoke, is visiting friends at this place.

Mrs. T. W. Coleman came home Friday from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Hester Snowday, near Arvonia.

Mrs. A. B. Hackett of W. Va. is visiting Mrs. T. S. Day.

We are sorry to hear of the death of Mr. D. W. Perrow.

Mr. J. T. Rush is progressing nicely on his new house near here.

SEARS GETS SIX MONTHS FOR KILLING HARVEY.

The day was consumed in arguing the Sears case in the court last Thursday and the jury took the court at supper time. After supper court was opened and the jury retured to consider their verdict. At first it looked like a hung jury, but the Judge told them he would give them until 9 o'clock. At 9 they asked for more time, which was given and in a few minutes after the jury returned to court with a verdict of six months in the county jail for the killing of Joel Harvey.

It was a hard fought legal battle, but the best of spirit prevailed among the lawyers, and the interest in the case was manifested by the large crowd which observed perfect order throughout the trial.

Thomas Watkins, of Charlotte, began the speaking for the Commonwealth in a speech of one and one-half hours, which was pronounced to be a fine presentation of the case. He was followed by Mr. Flood, who spoke about two hours in his forceful manner. Mr. Aubrey E. Strode closed the case for the Commonwealth in a speech of nearly three hours. His telling points and fine oratory brought conviction to many hearers, if not to the jury, and the tears flowed freely from the eyes of the audience. It was said to be one of the finest speeches ever made in the courthouse.

Friday morning the Judge sentenced Lester Sears to serve a sentence of six months in the county jail, where he is now confined.

Let it be said of young Sears that his exceptionally good character served him well, and the loyalty of his host of friends was noticable to a marked degree. Let the young men draw a lesson. A good character is more valuable than gold.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address

No. 18.—300 acres—$1,200. This farm is situated 5 miles from station and is a very desirable place; 80 acres in woods; rest open; no buildings of corn made last year, besides fine crops of wheat, oats, potatoes and tobacco; old residence 2 stories high with 8 rooms; barns; corn-crib and other outbuildings; well-fenced and 3 creeks; fine stock water in it; 50 acres remain in original growth—white oak, pine, spruce, &c.; 250 fruit trees, and the orchard rarely ever fails; the land is somewhat hilly, but not broken; there are tenant houses on the place besides. The property is located in the midst of one of our best agricultural sections and is in a fine neighborhood of good farmers.

No. 164.—200 acres—$800. This is a part of what used to be one of the finest estates in this section of Virginia. The soil is gray top soil, underlaid with clay subsoil; there are 75 acres of the land in good white oak timber; good orchard, well watered farm, on Appomattox river. The land is comparatively hilly; the owner has farmed it for 30 years and has made a living off it. This is a rare bargain and should be investigated. Apply to or from Appomattox depot, on mail route R. F. D., near mill, schools and churches.

No. 15. 275 Acres. $3,500
Mill—one run of stones each for wheat and corn; order of the seasons business; plenty of water for all purposes; timber; plenty of timber for fences, &c.; 4 stories; situated 1 mile of station, N. & W. Ry.; 6-room mill-house and 2 other tenant houses on the place; fine opportunity; investigate.

No. 1. 1,000 Acres. $8,000.
An 8-room house valued at $1,000; 500 acres of fairly good timber; fine orchard of apples and peaches; 2 barns; 2 tobacco barns; corn-crib; farm as a whole though not rough, lacks some house, kitchen, 2 tobacco barns, corn house, hogpen fencing; less than 2 miles of railroad; every convenience and adjoins farm No. 2; 2 miles from Appomattox; 1 mile from station. Besides the value of this farm as a farm, there is a very bright prospect for tin, copper and potter's clay—lithia is the mineral belt. A day must be spent in examining this place to appreciate it.

No. 131. 288 Acres. $5,000.
Lies within 2 miles of station, N. & W. Ry; high state of cultivation—mostly in grass; 8-room residence; tenant house; fine outbuildings; 30 acres in wood; remainder in cultivation; orchard; well watered; every convenience a farmer could wish for; all good land; this is a well stocked with machinery and live stock, and the owner, who has lived upon it for 20 years, offers all at a bargain on account of infirmity of age. There is no better place in Virginia for the money; stock and machinery can be had for $1,000.
